Tomorrow will be Palm Sanday, the I day commemor t ve of the triumphal enoccasion will be in order throughout the time set for his execution. Ohristian world, in churches of many placed by white coverings on Holy Thureday and black on Good Friday. In the Oathollo churches the morning ing day it is customary to hold confirmation day exercises when all children under 14 years of age, who have made the regular course of instruction are received ed with purple coverings, which are reinto the church. In the Ostholic churches the morning services consist of the blessing and distribution of palms and singing of the mass. The gospel of the mass consist of the singing of the Pession of Christ, in which both the choir and the priests participate.

In striking contrast to the solemn penitential services of the Lenten sesson and particularly Holy Week, is the observance in the churches of the great Obristian featival of the year; namely, Easter. In those churches where ceremonial plays a prominent part in the service the difference between the sad confession. Besides the superintendent rites of Holy Week, devoid of all pomp and splender, Easter is marked by a wealth of ceremonial. The alters in the Catholic and Episcopal churches are once more adorated with flowers, and in the churches in general irrespective of any denominational differences, there is festive singing and sermons are preached that tell of the hope in the risen Ohriet.

THE APPROACHING FISHING SEASON.

The shad, the most toothsome of American food fish, are entering the Chesapsake bay and Potomac river on their travels north. Already buck shad the forerunner of the big schools to follow, have been caught in the gill nets along the shores of the Ohesapeake bay and tributaries.

According to advices from various sections of the bay, it is believed that the prospect this spring is better than heretofore, owing to the effects of the early

Reports from Wicomico river are to the effect that already a number of shad have been caught, but the main school is not expected until about April 1, when the season will begin in earnest, lasting until the last of May.

THE RESPITE OF SMITH.

As has been stated, Henry Smith, colored, sentenced to die in the electric try of Christiet) Jerusalem, and special chair was yesterday morning notified of services and sermons appropriate to the a resp to within a few minutes before

Mr. F. P. Russell, counsel for Smith, denominations. Palm Sandsy also marks has returned from Richmond. He says the beginning of Holy Week, or Passion he had a long interview with the gover-Week, the last and most solemn days nor on Thursday and urged him to mitiof Lent being those of Holy Thursday gate the sentence of the condemned man, and Good Friday of this week. Purple, The governor assured Mr. Russell that he sign of mourning, will be much in he would give the case his closest atterevidence also and in the Oatholic church-tion, but he in no manner intimated what action he would take. Half an hour before he was to have been placed in the chair Smith was presented by Superintendent Wood of the peniter tiary with a paper from Governor Mann respiting him to May 13.

Major Wood went to the man's cell and had a few minutes' talk with him. Pulling from ble pockets a document, which Smith no doubt thought was the order demanding that his life be forfeited to the stit, the superintendent asked him regarding the crime, opening up a way whereby he could make a confession. The official was disappointed, as Smith added nothing to his former statements.

The reprieve was handed Superinterdent Wood Thursday night with instructions from the governor that the convicted man should not be told of it until shortly before the death sentence should be carried out, with the hope that under this pressure the negro would make a only one of the guards knew of it, and there was no possibility of the negro knowing of the governor's action until the paper was read to him.

When the officers came to the cell, Smith thought they were there to take him to the chair. He was asked if he had anything to say. He replied that he was innocent of the crime, and did not even know the man. He also expressed the hope that Richard Pines, Oalvin Johnson and Eugene Dorsey, also sentanced for the crime, would be freed. Smith did not show the slightest emo-
